INDIAN COLLEGES FORUM

Subject: 20th Annual Conference of Indian Colleges 28th February, 1 and 2nd March, 2014 on "Higher Education for Development of Economy and Society through Research and Innovations" In collaboration with General Shivdev Singh Diwan and Gurbhachan Singh Khalsa College, Patiala, Pujanb.

Dear Sir, Madam

Introduction

Indian Colleges Forum of Society for Education and Economic Development, New Delhi has been organizing annual conferences of the Forum for the last 19 years on the important themes of higher education and development in different parts of the country to involve principals of Colleges to contribute to policy formulation and to implement policy and programme in the larger interest of students, teachers and the society. Indian Colleges Forum has scheduled its 20th Three-Day Annual Conference from 28th February 1st and 2nd March, 2014 at General Shivdev Singh Diwan Gurbhachan Singh Khalsa College, Patiala to deliberate on the main theme of the conference and its sub-themes of the conference. I am enclosing two copies of brochure giving details of Theme, Sub-Themes and issues which are going to be deliberated upon in the conference. The announcement is also put on our website www.seedu.org

Likely Outcome of the Conference:

Deliberations and presentation in conference will be helpful in developing recommendations for new policy and planning strategies for development of colleges in India. Participants will also work in groups to make recommendations for drawing suitable policy and guidelines for apex organization for supporting colleges in their endeavor for their strategic development to face the challenges of future. This in turn will help students coming out of portals of colleges to cause development of India and equip them to face global competition:

We would like to request you to kindly nominate principals of government colleges in your state to participate in the conference, share their views and benefit from the deliberations and peer group interaction. Such interactions help them to implement best practices shared by the participating principals of colleges from different parts of the country.

We would also like to request you to kindly bring this announcement to the notice of Principals of colleges of your state and encourage them to attend the conference and enrich the deliberations.

I look forward to your positive response and with regards.

Yours Sincerely

(G.D. Sharma)
