ORDER

In partial modification of the orders issued in the G.O. read above, Government Order the following amendments to the Norms for transfer and posting of Government College Teachers.

Amendments

(i) In the norms for transfer and postings of College Teachers the following clause shall be added after the existing rules in Para 1 namely:—

"An application for a change of "Home Station" will be considered as request for transfer to the newly selected "home station" and transfer will be affected subject to other conditions in the norms: In respect of teachers who change their home station, the entire service of such teachers in all the declared home station, before or after such change will be treated as home station.

(ii) The following shall be added before the existing clause in Para 2 (b) namely:—

"All colleges situated within a radius of 15 kms from a city shall be treated as Home Station".

(iii) The following shall be added after the existing rule in Para 2 (b) (2) namely:—

"When teachers are transferred from city service to mofussil service the person who has least mofussil service including Evening College will be transferred first."

(iv) The first sentence in Para 17 (b) shall be replaced with the following namely:—

"Those incumbents who are undergoing F.I.P. or on long leave who are due to rejoin duty on or before 1st July of every year will also be included in the transfer proposals, on the presumption that they will rejoin duty on or before 1st July".

(v) The following para will be added to the norms after Para 18.

"19. These norms will be applicable to teachers of Music Colleges also."
